Why visit Skills North West?

It's the biggest interactive careers and skills event for young people in the region. It's taking place at Bolton Arena on 9, 10, 11 February from 9.30 until 3pm.

What can I do there?

You can get hands-on with your future, trying new skills from hairdressing to horseracing, painting to plumbing, climbing to cooking with over 50 exhibitors including the Army, Careers at Sea, Careers in Racing, Connexions Service, Manchester City Council, Myerscough College, PGL Travel, Royal Mail, Royal Navy & Royal Marines, United Utilities, University of Bolton, University of Southampton School of Health Sciences and loads more.

There will be interactive features, stunning stage performances, competitions and much more to help you choose the right career or training opportunity.

What makes it different from other events?

You get to find out about careers, training, enterprise and skills by trying them out and talking to people. You can learn about courses from advertising to zoology, careers from accountant to youth worker, training from apprenticeships to volunteering.

There will be interactive features, stunning stage performances, competitions and much more to help you choose the right career or training.

Who else can attend?

Anyone aged 14-19 will find it helpful, but you can bring other friends and family along too.

Essa Academy

"I thought the event was fantastic. Staff were brilliant and activities were interesting to all 180 pupils and they were fully engaged throughout. We will definitely come again."

GMPT E

"It was great to see such enthusiastic young people who will be the future of our organisations. The interaction was great and a worthwhile event."

K Finnigan, St Hugh's Communication & Interaction Specialist College

"Our students and staff really enjoyed the event experience. I was particularly impressed with the efficient welcome, and the knowledge that lost students would be looked after by your staff was really reassuring. Thank you."
